MWA-HA-HA-HA! YOU'RE FUNNY!

THEN THERE'S STRESS FROM PARENTS, SCHOOL, GIRL PROBLEMS.
MEANING PEOPLE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN ACTIONS.

IF YOU DIDN'T SEE IT, DON'T BELIEVE IT.
THIS REFUSAL TO BELIEVE IS... WHAT YOU CALL SCIENCE?
SCIENCE KEEPS GIVING PEOPLE "FORMULAS OF DENIAL"...

* MONGDALGUI THE GHOST OF A BACHELOR WHO HAS NO WIFE OR CHILDREN TO MOURN HIM AND PERFORM THE ANNUAL CEREMONY OF THE DEAD

BECAUSE OF THIS MONGDALGUI BECOME AGGRESSIVE AND HARMFUL TOWARDS HUMANS TO REMEDY THIS A SHAMAN MUST MATCH THE MONGDALGUI WITH A GHOST OF AN UNMARRIED WOMAN

THE SHAMAN THEN MAKES DOLLS MADE OF STRAW REPRESENTING THE BRIDE AND GROOM AFTER PERFORMING A WEDDING CEREMONY. THE SHAMAN PLACES THE DOLLS IN A DOLL HOUSE

While
I'm busy working away on an issue, I promise myself "When this is done, I'll go to the movies or go on a trip…" But once I finish working, I say to myself, "The best way to relax is to stay home and do nothing." So, I just watch TV and stay in bed all day. By the time I start to regret doing nothing, it's time to work on the next issue.

While working on this issue, I promised myself I'd take a trip to visit the royal burial site of a Korean king. When I was a kid, I thought this burial site was some kind of a playground. And when I was older I thought, "It's a huge gravesite—what a waste of land!" I haven't been there for a few years, so I wonder what I'll think about it now. It should be fascinating, right?
